Public Speaking.

It will be borne in mind that Messrs. Wisener and Thomas, electors for this district, will address the citizens of Winchester and Franklin county at this place on Monday next. As it is the commencement of Circuit Court, a large crowd may be expected.

On Wednesday the electors for the State at large will be here. Let everybody turn out and hear them.

We hear, from best authorities, of numbers of democrats in this county who can't go the Cincinnati nominee, and will vote for Fillmore and Donelson.

C. M. Farmer tenders his services to the people of Winchester and Franklin county to fill all orders for Furniture.—Mr. F.'s work is wide and favorably known, and we bespeak for him a liberal share of public patronage.

Some person has been telling it about that Jourdan steals his goods. He says that is one reason why he can sell cheaper than everybody else. Try him.

There will be a grand mass meeting and barbecue at Knoxville on the 4th of September. The arrangements being made will insure a jolly time. The whole State is invited. Hurrah for East Tennessee!

Judge Shortridge, of Alabama, who has been claimed as a supporter of Buchanan, is announced to speak in support of Fillmore, in the Huntsville American. The Fillmore men in Alabama are entering upon the labors of the canvass with enthusiastic zeal, and will exhibit enduring trophies of their powers in November.—The same may be said, indeed, of every State in the Union.

MASSACHUSETTS.—The "solid men of Boston," and of the Bay State, are moving for Fillmore. A meeting is proposed to be held soon at Faneuil Hall to start the ball. A new Fillmore daily paper is to be started immediately, and the State is to be carried for Fillmore, sure.

M. & H. Nassauer have on hand a splendid assortment of Hats, Boots and Shoes, which they offer cheap.

"The Winchester Weekly Appeal" is before us. We should like to see a copy of the Daily.—Palaski True American Citizen.

We would send it to you but fear you would then demand the Hourly, and so on. The "True American Citizen" is before us. We would like to see a copy of the false one.

We see from Brownlow's Whig that his new book is ready for distribution, and those desiring copies can be supplied by addressing him at Knoxville, or any of his agencies. The title page runs as follows:

"Americanism contrasted with Foreignism, Romanism, and Bogus Democracy, in the Light of Reason, History and Scripture; in which certain Demagogues in Tennessee, and elsewhere, are shown up in their true colors."

Retail price of the book 75 cents. Liberal discount will be made to wholesale dealers.

We have just received the August No. of Godey. The ladies consider Godey a special favorite. His fashion plates are beautiful.

DEMOCRATS TO OLD LINE WHIGS, GREETING.

The Richmond Enquirer, the leading organ of the Southern Democracy, talks "right out in meetin'" to Old Line Whigs, as follows:

"We invite no man of Whig principles to join the Democratic party. Such an overture would be as insulting to him as unjust to our party. A person with Whig convictions cannot be admitted into the Democratic organization, without to some extent corrupting its integrity and debauching its principles. We invite no Whig to come into the Democratic party, unless he chooses voluntarily and from convictions to oblige his ancient faith, and to profess allegiance to our peculiar platform."

Commenting on this, the Richmond Whig says: "After this we are sure that no Whig not already a dog at heart can unite with the Democracy in the coming election."

Letters from Mr. Fillmore in 1848.

In refutation of one of the many misrepresentations now circulating through the opposition press of the South in relation to Mr. Fillmore's position touching the subject of slavery—old slanders of 1848 now re-asserted—we publish the following letter by which the misrepresentation to which it relates was then exploded:

ALBANY, Sept. 13, 1858.
DEAR SIR: I returned this morning from the West, and have yours of the 10th, in which you say it has been charged in the Richmond Enquirer that I hold it to be within the power of Congress to interfere with or break off the transportation, removal or disposal of persons held as slaves from one slave-holding State to another.

I am aware that this question has ever been discussed in Congress, or was ever presented for the consideration of the Supreme Court of the United States before 1841. In that year the celebrated case from Mississippi was decided, and Mr. Justice McLean gave an elaborate opinion on this point in which the Chief Justice concurred. He came to the conclusion that the constitutional power over this matter was vested in the several States, and not in Congress. So far as my knowledge extends, this opinion carried conviction to every unprejudiced mind, and the question was considered settled. At any rate, this was my opinion then, and I have seen no cause to change it since. Should I do so, I shall not hesitate to declare it.

You will, therefore, perceive that you did me no injustice in representing to your friend that these were my sentiments.

I write in haste, amid the pressure of official duties, but remain
Truly yours,
MILLARD FILLMORE.

JAMES BROOKS, Esq.
ALBANY, N. Y., July 31, 1848.

HON. JOHN GAYLE.—Dear Sir: I have your letter of the 16th instant, but my official duties have been so pressing that I have been compelled to neglect my private correspondence. I had also determined to write no letters for publication bearing upon the contest in the approaching canvass. But as you desire some information for your own gratification in regard to the charges brought against me from the South, on the Slavery question, I have concluded to state briefly my position.

While I was in Congress, there was much agitation on the right to petition.—My vote will doubtless be found recorded in favor of it. The rule upon which I acted was, that every citizen presenting a respectful petition to the body that by the Constitution had power to grant or refuse the prayer of it, was entitled to be heard, and therefore the petition ought to be received and considered. If not right and reasonable the prayer of it should be denied. I think all my votes, whether on the reception of petitions or the consideration of resolutions, will be found consistent with this rule.

I have none of my Congressional documents here, they being at my former residence in Buffalo, nor have I access to any papers or memoranda to refresh my recollection; but I think that some time while in Congress I took occasion to state in substance my views on the subject of slavery in the States. Whether the remarks were reported or not, I am unable to say, but the substance was that I regarded slavery as an evil, but one with which the national government has nothing to do. That by the constitution of the United States the whole power over that question was vested in the several States where the institution was tolerated. If they regard it as a blessing, they had a constitutional right to enjoy it, and if they regard it as an evil, they had the power, and knew best how to apply the remedy. I did not conceive that Congress had any power over it or was in any way responsible for its continuance in the several States where it existed. I have entertained no other sentiments on this subject, since I examined sufficiently to form an opinion, and I doubt not that all my acts, public and private, will be found in accordance with this. I have the honor to be your obedient servant.
MILLARD FILLMORE.

THE TIDE TURNED.

The New York Tribune, a short time ago; affected to believe the chances of Mr. Fillmore's success too insignificant to merit notice. It has now changed its tone. It begins to see that he is the dangerous competitor of its favorite. In a late issue it says:

"The South American party at present evinces more vitality and vigor in our State than does that which enjoys the sympathies of by far the larger share of the Missouri border ruffians."

The New Y. Herald has also changed its tone. It regards Mr. Fillmore's prospects as greatly improved, whilst Mr. Buchanan's are growing dark. Of the latter it says:

"Mr. Buchanan, on the other hand, is already slackening his gait very perceptibly. His papers are deserting him here and there, and his most active drummers seem to be laboring in vain to get up a little enthusiasm. The stuff of which popular enthusiasm is made, however, is not in him, and cannot be brought out of him. Through his whole life he has been a cold and timid man, following in the wake of other men. We don't hear anything of late of Mr. Buchanan. Had the Presidential election taken place the day or the week after the Cincinnati Convention he would hardly have had a show of resistance; but he has been losing ground ever since. Even Captain Rynders, with his well-drilled Empire Club, and his faithful six-pounder, can hardly make noise enough for the democratic candidate to be heard beyond the iron railings of the Park.

Thus, then, they stand: Fremont ahead all over the North; Fillmore bristling up in the South, Buchanan losing ground.—At this rate, where will the democracy be in November?"

Graham's Magazine, Godey's Lady's Book, and Harper's Monthly.—Having made arrangements with the Publishers we are enabled to make the following offer: For one copy of the Appeal and a copy of any one of the above excellent periodicals, one year, $3 25. This is only twenty-five cents more than the regular subscription price of either of the magazines. Where are the ladies.

Everybody in town, and in the country, so far as it is known that Guildersleeve is in town, who has a watch or clock that was ever made to run, whether it is worn out or spoiled by travelling tinkers, is now having it made to keep time as well as when new. Everything of the kind is warranted, and if it does not perform satisfactorily, it costs you nothing. So if you want to have your watches and clocks made to keep correct time, bring them right in, and we assure you, you will get the worth of your money. Mr. Guildersleeve wishes it understood that he is not a travelling watch-fixer, like many who start out from a gunsmith shop to pick the people's pockets by pretending to repair their clocks and watches, but a regular workman, having done a large portion of the work sent from here to Nashville lately, although not generally known to the people.

Neither would we forget those celebrated Brazilian Pebble Spectacles for sale by Mr. Guildersleeve. If you wish to preserve your eye and read with ease, throw away your common glasses and procure a pair of the Brazilians.

SALE OF Valuable Property.

I wish to sell my land, consisting of about five hundred acres, located four miles and a half from Decherd Depot, Franklin Co., on the road to Hickoryville. Said land is well timbered and watered—there being three or four never-failing wells of good water; besides an excellent stock pond; tolerably good dwelling, with the necessary out-houses; good orchards, containing as good fruit as can be found in the county.

All the cleared land is in a high state of cultivation at this time, and if the purchaser desires, the present crop would be sold, together with all the stock belonging to the place, consisting of hogs, cattle, and sheep. The land is in two tracts, and can be divided, if necessary, to suit purchasers.

TERMS.—One-third cash, and the balance in one and two years.
—ALSO—
On the 3d of October next, at my residence, I will sell, at public sale, all my farming utensils, together with household and kitchen furniture. If private sale for my land and stock be not had before then, I will sell them to the highest bidder on said day.

To those who value their Sight
We would say: If you find your eye-sight failing, or if you use spectacles, do not delay availing yourself of the opportunity of procuring a pair of the justly celebrated

Brazilian Pebble Spectacles, adapted to your eye, and selected by a person who understands the business. They do not tire the eye when reading and will preserve vision unimpaired for years longer than any other glass if properly selected to suit the eye. There is no straining of the eye while using them, as in most other spectacles. The shape of the surface, (concavo convex) the large size and the fineness and clearness of the glass are the combined qualities which no other glasses possess, and which render them superior to all others. Many persons might have good eye-sight for ten or fifteen years longer by using these glasses than the common glasses which in the end often do more harm than good. Numerous testimonials can be produced from the best citizens of Nashville. For sale by
